Position Title: Discovery Associate

Would you like to be part of a Discovery team that works with household name manufacturers? Or, how about being part of a savvy litigation team while still maintaining your regular schedule? If so, Bowman and Brooke could be the right choice for you.

At Bowman and Brooke, we pride ourselves on combining our knowledge of the law with the art of persuasive advocacy for our clients and we work collaboratively to produce the highest quality legal work product for our clients. Our team of attorneys is passionate about litigating cases in state and federal courts and have decades of experience handling legal issues related to products liability, premises liability, catastrophic personal injury and more. Proudly, we are consistently ranked as a Top Tier firm by Law360, The Legal 500 and others.

Interested in seeing what makes a nationally ranked product liability firm unique? Join us! We are currently seeking an Associate Attorney with 2-4 years of civil litigation experience, with a focus on discovery and other complex litigation to join our team in Torrance (Los Angeles), CA. As part of the team, you will work closely and collaboratively with attorneys, paralegals, other in-house eDiscovery team members, firm staff and clients, while providing discovery services tailored to each case in a fast-paced litigation environment.

The ideal candidate will possess a strong academic background, excellent communication and writing skills, keen attention to detail, a proven track record of high performance and measurable results, and an eagerness to assume elevated responsibility in a diverse and fast-paced working environment. An understanding of legal issues related to a discovery practice and the ability to draft complex written discovery responses is key. The successful candidate will also know how to effectively apply best practices and procedures related to eDiscovery, ESI preservation, document review / coding and large-scale document productions. We require applicants to be licensed to practice law in the State of California.

You will be rewarded with a competitive total compensation package, a mentor program to support your career development, added benefits unique to this profession (e.g., affinity bar association membership is encouraged and supported), and the resources, technology, and business development and marketing leadership to support you in building your practice. Add to this a discretionary performance-based bonus program and you will see that Bowman and Brooke has what it takes to meet and exceed your goals and expectations. We also offer a nationally recognized diversity and inclusion program to benefit all our attorneys and staff.

WE WANT YOU! If your skills match what we're looking for, please send your resume and cover letter referencing this position to Barb Ell, Director of Human Resources.
